

Canadian Emergency Communications Green Base Station

Canadian Emergency Communications Green Base Station

CEGHO \("Diefenbunker"\) , DAVE'S COLD WAR CANADA

Built in secrecy during a 14 month period between 1959 and 1961, the facility became active in 1962 and operated 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 52 weeks a year for over ...

Product Information

Emergency Frequencies - YRARC

National HF Emergency Communications Frequencies The following frequencies and modes have been pre-determined for suggested use of the Amateur Radio Emergency Service during a ...

Product Information

Location of Broadcast and Wireless Emergency Alert Distributors

The map below shows the location of AM and FM radio stations, over-the-air television stations and subscription-based television service providers. It is considered current ...

Product Information

Canadian Forces Affiliate Radio System - CFARS

It allows for point to point communication over great distances with as little as a small 100W transceiver, a 12VDC car battery and a random-length piece of wire for an antenna.

Product Information

List of Canadian Coast Guard bases and stations

Map showing the operating regions of the Canadian Coast Guard: the Atlantic Region, the Central Region, the Arctic Region and the Western Region The Canadian Coast Guard (CCG) ...

Product Information

About - Canadian Forces Affiliate Radio System

A working Canadian Forces Affiliate Radio System station is on exhibit as part of the Military Communications and Electronics Museum at CFB Kingston in Kingston, Ontario.

Product Information

Radio Amateurs of Canada Amateur Radio Emergency ...

A communications emergency is a situation in which normal communications infrastructure and processes are unable to meet the communications demands associated with an unusual ...

Product Information

Canadian Forces Affiliate Radio System - Réseau-radio affilié aux

CFARS provides auxiliary HF voice and data communications support for the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) and participates in the development and coordination of emergency ...

Product Information

Locations and Fleet

Ambulances make up the bulk of our fleet of more than 50 vehicles, but we also have special event vehicles, emergency response units, a logistics van, a specialized bariatric and Haz-Mat ...

Product Information

MAINE_Border Interoperability Guide Draft REDACT

Introduction In March and June of 2011, the Maine Emergency Management Agency (MEMA) held Cross Border workshops with stakeholders From Maine and neighboring Canadian provinces ...

Product Information

Canadian Forces Affiliate Radio System - CFARS

It allows for point to point communication over great distances with as little as a small 100W transceiver, a 12VDC car battery and a random-length piece of ...

Product Information

Canadian Aeronautical Communications

Welcome aboard the Canadian Aeronautical Communications Website. My name is Peter Ivakitsch and I reside in Toronto, Canada. I have been interested in aviation for nearly 40 ...

Product Information

CFS Alert

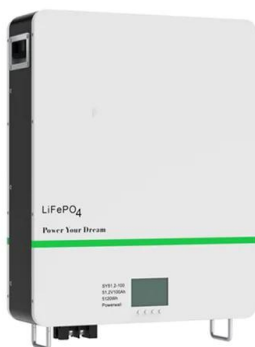

The base consists of three areas, the Eureka Airport which includes "Fort Eureka" (the quarters for military personnel maintaining the island's communications equipment), the Environment ...

Product Information

Canadian Forces Station Alert

On April 1, 2009, the Royal Canadian Air Force (RCAF) took command of CFS Alert. It is a unit of 8 Wing, headquartered in Trenton, Ontario (ON). The Station was first settled in the early ...

Product Information

Emergency Government Facilities

It consists of four floors, a Bank of Canada Vault extension and an external "Garage" on about 80 acres. The main building totals just over 100,000 square feet of usable space. It cost ...

Product Information

NOVA SCOTIA - Canadian Military History

The Provincial Warning Centre, the Regional Emergency Government Headquarters and 720 Communications Squadron also took up residence in the bunker. All Government bunkers also ...

Product Information

ESS

Canadian Forces Station Alert

The High Arctic Data Communications System (HADCS), also known as the Hurricane Data Link, is the station's primary communications link with the south. The construction of the HADCS, ...

Product Information

ONTARIO - Canadian Military History

Canadian Forces Base Ottawa (South): Originally established on 5 August 1940 at the Uplands Airport as No. 2 Service Flying Training School under the British Commonwealth Air Training ...

Product Information

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://les-jardins-de-wasquehal.fr>