

Vatican Photovoltaic Power Plant Energy Storage Policy

Overview

How will a solar plant benefit the Vatican?

The Pope has given full authority to two special Commissioners to supervise the plant's construction, ensuring that the project is carried out efficiently and effectively. The energy generated by this solar plant will cover all the Vatican's energy needs, eliminating dependence on non-renewable energy sources.

Does the Vatican need a solar plant?

The implementation of a solar plant not only improves the Vatican's environmental sustainability, but also offers economic and social benefits. By generating its own energy, the Vatican can save on light. This is especially relevant in a context where the price of light is a constant worry for many.

Why does the Vatican have a solar system?

The Vatican's solar shift is a culmination of a political and spiritual mission years in the making. In 2024, the late Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter ordering the construction of an agrivoltaic solar plant to supply the Vatican with energy from Santa Maria di Galeria. On the same site, the new solar infrastructure now stands.

Where does Pope Francis build a agrivoltaic plant?

With the Apostolic Letter "Fratello sole," issued motu proprio, Pope Francis provides for the construction of an agrivoltaic plant in the extraterritorial zone of Santa Maria in Galeria, where Vatican Radio maintains antennas for digital broadcasting. By Christopher Wells.

Does Vatican City have solar power?

Yes. Vatican City has joined Albania, Bhutan, Nepal, Paraguay, Iceland, Ethiopia and the Democratic Republic of Congo to become one of just eight countries in the world to generate 100% of its electricity from renewable sources. Several church organizations around the world are making the move to solar.

Does Pope Francis support solar energy?

Solar energy plays an essential role in Pope Francis' strategy to address climate change. Since his 2015 encyclical "Laudato Si'," the Pope has been a firm defender of climate action and repeatedly appealed to the international community to take swifter and more decisive measures. agosto 14, 2024 08:26 ZENIT Staff Pope Francis, Vatican City
